Biography:

Sareh Oveysi is a creative visual artist, photographer, art director, and filmmaker based in Germany. Originally from Tehran, Iran, she holds a Bachelor's degree in Statistics from Ghiaseddin University. Sareh has honed her artistic skills through specialized training, including certifications in creative UV lighting and infrared photography techniques from the United Register of Systems (2016) and professional digital photography and videography from PTO (2013).

For Sareh, capturing a moment in time through a photograph or a piece of art is a way to tell a story without words. This creative process not only allows her to express her unique perspective but also inspires her to see the world in new and meaningful ways.
